

HOW CAN WE RESPOND TO THIS SYSTEMIC CRISIS?

A series of master classes, seminars, workshops and talks with Professor Laura Rival, research collaborators and colleagues

HILARY TERM 2026 BY KNOWING 'NATURE' DIFFERENTLY

Wednesday 28 January, 3-5pm

Are machines part of nature? | THEODOR BORRMANN (Oxford)

Wednesday 4 February, 3-5pm

cancelled

Wednesday 11 February, 3-5pm

Can queering ecology help us address environmental destruction? | CANNELLE GUEGUEN-TEIL (Oxford)

Wednesday 18 February, 3-5pm

Master class: Nature and modes of law making | LAURA RIVAL (Oxford)

Wednesday 24 February, 3-5pm

Master class: Priceless or unmarketable? Nature and its free gifts | LAURA RIVAL (Oxford)

Wednesday 4 March, 3-5pm

Master class: If Nature was the question, would biomimicry be the answer? | LAURA RIVAL (Oxford)

Wednesday 11 March, 3-5pm

Seminar Room 1, The Life and Mind Building, South Parks Road OX1 3RB

When ground gives way: Attentive responsiveness and reimagining scientific authority | OLGA ULTURGASHEVA (University of Manchester)

Meeting Room A, ODID, 3 Mansfield Road, Oxford, OX1 3TB (except 11 March)

More events to follow in Trinity term.

