

Fees and Funding:

The basic establishment fee for one term's visit at ODID is £300. The fee will be higher if desk space/computer access is provided. Fellows based in research centres will be asked to pay a fee to the centre. In addition we estimate that a Visiting Fellow would require approximately £700-£1,000 per month for modest living expenses.

Please provide details of any grants you have applied for to enable you to come to ODID, stating

(i) the name of the donor organization

(ii) which grants (if any) have you already been awarded, including amount and duration

If you will not be receiving a grant, how will you pay your fees and support yourself in Oxford?

If you are a Non-EU National, you will require health/travel insurance (certain countries excepted) to cover the cost of medical treatment in the UK. Have you made the necessary arrangements for health/travel insurance?

Other information:

Because English is the working language of the department for both academic and practical purposes, applicants are normally expected to have fluency in English of the standard required by Oxford for overseas graduate students. For further details, please see the University's webpages at <http://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/graduate/applying-to-oxford/application-guide#englishproficiency>

Visiting Fellowships are subject to UK Home Office immigration regulations. Visitors from outside the EEA must ensure that they hold an appropriate visa to carry out research in the University prior to arrival in the UK.

Declaration:

I confirm that, if accepted for Visiting Fellowship, I agree to follow the department's visitor policy and procedure and pay the required fee.
